Key to the Memorial honoring the events and Heroes of the Battle of Midway, June 4-7, 1942

Task Force 17 / Task Force 16

1. LCCG Eugene E. Lindsey, USN, Commanding Officer of Torpedo Squadron Six (VT-6); bomb group leader.
2. Torpedo Squadron Eight (VT-8) and four additional bomb groups.
3. PBY Catalina patrol bombers.

Midway Defenders

1. LCCG Eugene E. Lindsey, USN, Commanding Officer of Torpedo Squadron Six (VT-6); bomb group leader.
2. Torpedo Squadron Eight (VT-8) and four additional bomb groups.
3. PBY Catalina patrol bombers.

COMINT (Communications Intelligence)

1. Office of Censorship: LCCG Joseph J. Rocheleau directed the staff of Navy cryptanalysts at FRESWAC (Fleet Radio Unit Pacific) who knew about the Japanese Midway code,
2. The Japanese code was broken by the team of cryptanalysts led by Joseph J. Rocheleau.
4. Crew of the Patrol Squadron 22 (VP-22) PBY "Catalina" patrol bomber that found the approaching Japanese fleet's Midway Occupation Force on the morning of June 4, 1942.
5. Aerial photo of Midway Island. Office U.S. Navy aerial photograph taken November 1941.
6. Office of Defense Information: LCCG Joseph J. Rocheleau directed the staff of Navy cryptanalysts at FRESWAC (Fleet Radio Unit Pacific) who knew about the Japanese Midway code,
7. The Japanese code was broken by the team of cryptanalysts led by Joseph J. Rocheleau.
9. Crew of the Patrol Squadron 22 (VP-22) PBY "Catalina" patrol bomber that found the approaching Japanese fleet's Midway Occupation Force on the morning of June 4, 1942.

Japanese and American Veterans Today

1. Haruo Yoshino, Pearl Harbor/Midway Veteran, onboard the carrier "Kaga" during the sinking of Midway. He was an armament officer on the "Kaga" torpedo bomber. He was a survivor from May 1942.
2. Tatsuo Yamasaki, Pearl Harbor/Midway Veteran, onboard the carrier "Kaga" during the sinking of Midway. He was an armament officer on the "Kaga" torpedo bomber. He was a survivor from May 1942.
3. Yasuo Murase, torpedo specialist from a "Karo" torpedo bomber. His ship "Hiryo" was sunk during the Battle of Midway. He was a survivor from May 1942.
4. Iwao Fujita, Zero fighter pilot. His ship "Zero" was sunk during the battle. He was a survivor from May 1942.
5. Battle of Midway Memorial Tip Group Photo of American and Japanese Veterans, including family members, on Midway Island, August 2000.
6. Sand Island. Midway is now a preserved wildlife sanctuary. Crow, birds, and native photographed by Ron Dahlquist, courtesy of Ron Dahlquist.
7. Former American and Japanese aviators who fought in the Battle of Midway meet in May 1994 to erect the Memorial Honor Roll. The ceremony was held on Midway Island.
8. American aviator and Japanese aviator who fought in the Battle of Midway meet in May 1994 to erect the Memorial Honor Roll. The ceremony was held on Midway Island.
10. Mitsubishi Type "Zero" Observation Seaplane "1312" (Koko).